We have returned to Ordinary Time. And yet, the first two Sundays of Ordinary Time after Pentecost are the two Solemnities of the Most Holy Trinity and the Most Holy Body and Blood of Jesus. Even, and especially, in the ordinary moments of our Christian life, we are called to grow in our relationship and love with God, Who desires a personal loving relationship with us, enough to provide the Son to us in the Eucharist. What a good and wonderful God we praise!

A blessed and happy Father's Day to all dads this weekend! More than simply a time to rest, relax, and grill out, this is a national, social, (dare I say,) secular recognition of that innate and irreplaceable role that fathers play in marriages, families, and society. Fathers, who are active, involved, and engaged in loving relationship with their wives and children, are a true testament to authentic living. We as a country and culture desperately need that witness.

Speaking of the importance of fathers and fatherhood, these resources might be helpful:

Next Saturday, June 21 at the 5:30p Mass, we will re-dedicate our newly renovated church. Archbishop Joseph Tobin will be here to preside. Reception to follow. Meat and drinks will be provided, but please RSVP (yes's only) with a side dish you volunteer to bring to Cindy Sickbert by calling 765-561-5048 or 765-932-4563. It should be a wonderful celebration!

- A Stewardship Moment -

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

In today's second reading, Saint Paul's final appeal is a call for unity. God created that unity. Good stewards who share Christ's life in the Eucharist belong to each other, just as God in three persons of Father, Son and Holy Spirit enjoy unity. We are an intimate part of God's divine bond, God's "family." Saint Paul maintains that we ought to act that way. In the church there is a bond of family, yet plenty of room for variety. Christian stewards use their uniquely varied gifts to live a Trinitarian faith, in unity, promoting Christ's peace and justice. How do we promote unity in our parish?

5:30p.m. Mass - June 21, 2014

Please Join Us - From all the committees, fundraising and dedication, we thank you for your commitment and countless hours of hard work that were put into renovating our beloved church. We now invite you to celebrate our achievements, at the rededication Mass of St. Mary presided over by Archbishop Tobin, with Fr. Gries.

RSVP - Reception to follow. Meat and drinks will be provided, but please RSVP with a side dish you volunteer to bring. Contact Cindy Sickbert by calling 765-561-5048 or 765-932-4563.

We hope to see everyone there!

A Friendly Reminder: Please

dress in a modest and appropriate manner, as you come to church. At every Mass, we gather as the Body of Christ to encounter God in Word and Sacrament. "Our demeanor (gestures, clothing) ought to convey the respect, solemnity, and joy of this moment when Christ becomes our guest" (CC, 1387). As we move into the summer season, there is a temptation to dress more casually, but our attire reminds us of the importance of our gathering. I know it can get hot, but modesty is always in fashion. Thank you, Fr. Gries.
